

Sapthagiri College Of Engineering Bangalore-560057

Dept.Of Information Science & Engineering

Synopsis

On

Real Estate Management

Under the Guidance of:

Mrs.Tejaswini BS

Submitted By:

Raman Kumar(1SG15IS090)

Samridhi Soni(1SG15IS100)

ABSTRACT

This system will provide facility to the user to search Residential and Commercial property and view property. This system will provide facility to view the property by admin and user. User will able to upload the property information to the site and able to manage it. This system will provide facility to the user to fill up their requirement and according to their Requirement Admin can add the Requirement property. This system will provide facility to the user to publish advertise to the Site and view. This system will provide facility to the user to feedback to the site.

MODULES

Admin Module:

1. Login : Authenticates Admin.
2. Manage administration : Privileges that of the guest as well as registration user.
3. Update property information.
4. Account updation.
5. New registration.

User Module:

1. Signup : New user can sign up themselves by providing their details consisting of name, phone.no, email etc.
2. Login : Register user have to login using authentic password in order to access the website's content.

Seller Module:

- The seller has to be contact with the registered user and contact as on time to time.

Owner Module:

- The owner of the property has to be updating information about the property and give an appropriate details of the property.
- It not only helps to maintain the standard of portal across the competitors but it also helps the user to find the best property to invest his values.